4. ACCOUNT ESTABLISHMENT

1. We agree to establish an account in the name of the Client who is the person named as the holder of the account.
2. Where the Client is more than one person, the account shall be established in their names as joint tenants unless they specifically advise otherwise (in which case it shall be established in their names as joint tenants). In any case, the parties to such joint account shall each be jointly (together) and severally (individually) liable.
3. No one except the Client has an interest in the Client's account with us opened for the purpose of this Client Agreement.

5. SEGREGATED ACCOUNTS

You agree and acknowledge to us that:

1. All money and property deposited by you with us, or received by us on behalf of you, shall be deposited to your account and form a credit balance and will initially be paid into a client segregated bank account established and maintained by us and invested in accordance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.
2. Such segregation of your money and property does not protect your money and property from the risk of loss.
3. Whilst your money and property is segregated from our money and property, please note that it may be co-mingled with the money and property of other clients, and utilised as free and clear collateral by us from time to time in respect of open positions. Such monies and property shall accordingly be treated as the legal and beneficial property of ours, subject to an obligation by us to transfer equivalent back to you in accordance with your transaction rights under this Client Agreement.
4. We shall be entitled to retain any interest earned on such segregated money or property held or invested by us.
5. If you do not provide us with a tax file number or details of exemption, we shall be legally obliged to deduct tax from interest payments at the highest marginal rate plus Medicare Levy.
6. We may use the funds in the client segregated account to manage our dealings with our counterparties with respect to client positions. You acknowledge that this serves as sufficient written authorisation for us to withdraw without notice to, or further authorisation from you, any money or property deposited into the segregated account to be used by us for this purpose. Further, you have no interest in or claim over our contracts (if any) with any other person or in the accounts into which we lodge or pay the funds which were withdrawn from the segregated accounts. You acknowledge that the balance of your account may not be protected if there is a default in the dealings with counterparties or in the overall segregated account balance.
7. Any collateral transferred by you to us or held by us or our counterparties on behalf of you is pledged as a security for any liability that you may have towards us. You warrant that all such collateral is beneficially owned by you and is and will remain free from any lien, security interest or another encumbrance. If you fail to fulfil any obligation under this Client Agreement, we are entitled to sell any collateral immediately without notice and by the means and at the price that we in our reasonable discretion determines. We shall not be liable for any loss occasioned by such sale.
8. Financial product trades executed through us are routed to our service provider, who then facilitates execution and/or clearing on our behalf. Depending on the relevant jurisdiction or exchange, either we or our service provider will be the registered owner of the instrument, within our client omnibus account. The value and dividends are then provided to you by us in accordance with your recorded, and continually reconciled, holdings. However, if we were to go into liquidation, and an administrator appointed, you would be prima facie entitled to fair value for your recorded holdings, rather than holding such instruments in your name directly, thereby placing you in the position of 'unsecured creditors' with the administrators.
9. We may enter into arrangements with third party execution and clearing providers for the facilitation of transactions and settlements, and avails monies received for margin calls and settlements to such providers for this purpose.

6. MULTIPLE ACCOUNTS

1. You are able to open multiple accounts denominated in the same currency as or in currencies other than that of the main trading account. The operation of multiple accounts may mean that it may incur additional costs.
2. If you open opposite positions in the same currency cross (for example) on the same account, such positions will cancel each other out. However, if you operate several accounts (or sub-accounts) and opposite positions are opened on different accounts (or sub-accounts), such positions will not cancel each other out. Please note that unless closed manually, all such positions may be rolled over on a continuous basis and consequently incur charges based on the 'tom-next rate'.
3. Keeping opposite positions open on different accounts will result in both positions being continuously rolled over (and thereby continuously being charged the 'tom-next rate') until manually closed.

4. If you have opened more than one account, the margin or collateral deposited on one account will not automatically serve as margin coverage on the other account(s). You may therefore receive margin calls and stop-outs on one account despite having additional margin or collateral available on the other accounts. However, if you have deposited money or collateral on one account, we are entitled to transfer money or collateral from one account to another, even if such transfer will necessitate the closing of margin trades on the account from which the transfer takes place.
5. Interest is calculated on the basis of the net free equity of each individual account or sub-account. When operating several accounts, you will be charged interest on the full negative net free equity on any account despite having a positive net free equity on another account. When operating several accounts, you should use caution when using more than one account and understand that the rate of interest paid on positive balance differs from the rate of interest charged on negative balances.

7. RISK DISCLOSURES

2. You have received, read and understood our PDS and FSG.

7. Further, in certain markets, we act as a market maker and quote you bid and ask prices. The bid and ask prices may not necessarily reflect those of our liquidity providers. We will only disclose that we are acting as a market maker in response to a written request from you to make such disclosure. You accept that in such markets, we may hold positions that are contrary to your position resulting in potential conflicts of interest.
8. Subject to applicable legal/regulatory requirements, you consent where we, either knowingly or unknowingly, take the opposite side to you in relation to any of the financial product transactions.

We reserve the right, at our sole discretion and without explanation, to refuse to deal on your behalf in relation to any exchange traded or over-the-counter (OTC) financial products (other than closing out existing open positions held in your account) or to limit the number of open positions held on your behalf, or both. We will inform you of any refusal before or as soon as practicable after such refusal.
11. You have no rights, whether by way of subrogation or otherwise, against any person other than us, in respect of transactions market traded pursuant to the applicable rules of the exchange or market, except to the extent (if any) provided by any applicable law.
12. Where errors have occurred in price quotes provided by, or the pricing of transactions quoted by us to you, we reserve the right to not be bound by such a quote or transaction where we are able to substantiate to you that there was a material error at the time of the quote or transaction. Where this occurs in relation to the initial purchase of a financial product, we will not issue (or if already issued, will cancel) the contract and refund your money accordingly. Where this occurs in relation to a price quote for an existing position, we will reissue the price quote accordingly.
13. Any benefit or right obtained by us upon registration of an exchange traded or OTC financial products with a clearing house is personal to us and such benefit or right shall not pass to you.
14. 15. There are risks associated with utilising an internet-based deal execution trading system which include, but are not limited to, the failure of hardware, software, and internet connection. Since we do not control signal power, our reception or routing via internet, configuration of your equipment or reliability of our connection, we will not be responsible for communication failures, distortions or delays when trading via the internet.
16. Reports to the Client on the execution of contract notes by us, and the content of such contract notes, open position statements and monthly statements, unless otherwise objected to within 48 hours after communication to you, shall be deemed proof of the accuracy of such contents and their execution in accordance with this Client Agreement.
17. A notice issued by an authorised officer or agent of ours stating the amount of money due and payable by you shall be taken as final evidence thereof in the absence of manifest error.
18. All determinations and calculations made by us under this Client Agreement will be binding on you in the absence of manifest error.
19. We are entitled, in our reasonable opinion, to determine that an emergency of an exceptional market condition exists. Such conditions include, but are not limited to, the suspension or closure of any market or the abandonment or failure of any event to which we relate our quote or the occurrence of an excessive movement in the level of any margin trade and/or underlying market or our reasonable anticipation of the occurrence of such a movement. In such cases we may increase our margin requirements, close any or all of your open margin trades and/or suspend or modify the application of all or any of the terms, including but not limited to, altering the last time for trading a particular margin trade, to the extent that the condition makes it impossible or impracticable for us to comply with the term in question.

15. You will execute or otherwise authorise us to execute all such agreements as required to enable the provision of the services contemplated in this Client Agreement. You appoint us as your attorney to do all things necessary to enter into such agreements on your behalf.
16. You shall promptly provide any instructions to us, which we may require. If you do not provide such instructions promptly, we may, in our absolute discretion, take such steps at your cost, as we consider necessary or desirable for our own protection or your protection. This provision also applies in situations when we are unable to contact you.
17. If you do not provide us with notice of your intention to exercise a financial product transaction which requires an instruction from you at the time stipulated by us, we may treat the transaction as abandoned by you. If a transaction can be prolonged on expiry, we may in our absolute discretion, choose to prolong or to close such transaction.
18. In general, we shall act according to instructions as soon as practically possible and shall, as far as trading instructions are concerned, act within a time frame reasonable seen in the context of the nature of the instruction. However, if after instructions are received, we believe that it is not reasonable practicable to act upon such instructions within a reasonable time, we may defer acting upon those instructions until it is, in our reasonable opinion, practicable to do so or notify you that we are refusing to act upon such instructions.
19. We will not be deemed to have any order or communication electronically transmitted by you until we have actual knowledge of any such order or communication. The mere transmission of an instruction by you shall not constitute a binding contract between you and us. The terms of any order or communication electronically transmitted to you may be subject to change or correction. Regardless of the fact that the online trading facility might confirm that a contract is executed immediately when you transmit instructions via the online trading facility, the confirmation forwarded by us or made available on the online trading facility constitutes our confirmation of a contract. Any instruction sent electronically shall only be deemed to have been received and shall only then constitute a valid instruction and/or binding contract between you and us when such instruction has been recorded as executed by us and confirmed by us to you including through a deal confirmation and/or account statement.

20. You acknowledge and warrant that you have received a password granting access to the online trading facility; are the sole owner of the password provided; and accept full responsibility for any transaction that may occur on an account opened, held or accessed through the use of the password provided to you by us, even if such use may be unauthorised or wrongful. You agree to accept full responsibility for the use of the online trading facility, for any orders transmitted through the online trading facility and for all communications and the accuracy of all information sent via the online trading facility using your name, password or any other personal identification means implemented to identify you.
21. You warrant and agree that any person who is in possession of any password is authorised by you, and you acknowledge that they will be responsible for any actions on the account associated with the use of your password.
22. You agree to notify us immediately should you become aware of any unauthorised use, loss or theft of your username, password or account numbers; or inaccurate information with respect to the content of statements including, cash balances, open positions or transaction history.

12. OPENING A TRANSACTION

1. You may request on any given business day, via telephone or otherwise, us to quote a price at which we may be prepared to enter into a financial product transaction. You acknowledge that a price quotation pursuant to this request does not constitute an offer to enter into a new or close an existing financial product.
2. Upon receiving the quote from us, you may via telephone or otherwise offer to enter into a financial product transaction with us at the price quoted by us.
3. We are in no way obliged to accept your offer to enter into a financial product transaction and, without limitation, are not obliged to accept your offer to enter into a financial product transaction, if you have exceeded or would exceed a predetermined limit imposed on you under this Client Agreement; or until we have received from you the initial margin where required, in the form of 'cleared funds'. We will promptly advise you should we decide not to accept your offer to enter into a financial product transaction.
4. The initial margin where required to enter into a financial product transaction, if not already received from you, will be payable to us upon acceptance by us of your offer to enter into the financial product transaction.
5. Should we accept your offer to enter into a financial product transaction, we will issue to you an electronic confirmation shortly after the financial product transaction has been entered into. This confirmation will be in the form of a deal confirmation. Failure by us to issue a deal confirmation will not prejudice or affect the relevant financial product transaction. We will not bear any liability whatsoever resulting from the failure to issue a deal confirmation.
6. You agree to examine the terms of each deal confirmation immediately upon receipt, and further agree that the contents of the deal confirmation, in the absence of manifest error, will be conclusive evidence of the executed deal, unless within 48 hours of issue of a deal confirmation you notify us of any disputed detail in the deal confirmation received by you. Upon receipt of written notice within the 48-hour period of the disputed detail, we will investigate the dispute and with your co-operation, will endeavour to resolve the dispute in good faith. Notwithstanding any such dispute, you will continue to satisfy any obligation to pay margin calls made by us in respect of the transaction as if the deal confirmation was correct and its details were not the subject of dispute.
7. In our absolute discretion, we reserve the right to limit the value of financial product transactions you may have outstanding under this Client Agreement. Should you wish to enter into any further financial product transactions, you must seek and obtain approval from us, which we may grant or refuse in our absolute discretion.
8. If you provide us with standing instructions to enter into a financial product transaction when a particular price level is reached in the market of the underlying security, you acknowledge that the price at which the financial product transaction is entered into may not be the same as the price requested by you as we may elect not to enter into the financial product transaction until we have satisfied ourselves that we can hedge our exposure in the underlying security.

13. ORDER EXECUTION

1. We undertake, and you acknowledge, that in respect of dealings in the financial products, and in compliance with the applicable Corporations Act 2001 and exchange operating rules requirements, we shall execute all dealings in the sequence in which they are received and recorded, unless it would be fair and equitable to allocate such contracts on a different basis.
2. We shall provide you with contract notes and monthly statements in accordance with applicable laws and regulation.
3. It is your responsibility on receipt to carefully check all transaction confirmations and statement documentation (whether received/accessed electronically or otherwise) and to bring any errors or omissions to our attention in writing within the time specified by us. In the absence of such written objection, the contract notes and monthly statements shall be deemed correct in all respects.
4. Orders may be placed as market orders to buy or sell an instrument as soon as possible at the price obtainable in the market, or limit and stop orders to trade when the price reaches a predefined level, as applicable to the various instruments offered. Limit orders to buy and stop orders to sell must be placed below the current market price, and limit orders to sell and stop orders to buy must be placed above the current market price. If the bid price for sell orders or ask price for buy orders is reached, the order will be filled as soon as possible at the price obtainable in the market. Limit and stop orders are thus not guaranteed executable at the specified level or amount, unless explicitly stated otherwise by us.
5. We may, in our absolute sole discretion, execute a stop-loss order in relation to any contract where there are reasonable grounds to believe that subsequent price movements may be averse to you. We shall not be liable to you however for any failure to exercise this discretion. A stop-loss order is triggered when you have a 'sold' position and the contract is traded at or above the stop-loss price; or when you have a 'bought' position and the contract is traded at or below the stop-loss price. Once a stop-loss order is triggered or executed it becomes a market order and we shall use our best endeavours to execute the market order. The acceptance of a stop-loss order is not a guarantee or representation by us that the stop-loss order can be executed at the stop-loss price.
6. We may, at our discretion, aggregate your orders with our own orders, or orders of associates and/or persons connected with us including employees and other clients. In addition, we may split your orders. Orders will generally be aggregated or split where we reasonably believe it to be in your overall best interests, but you acknowledge that on some occasions the consequence of the aggregation or splitting may result in a less favourable price than your order having been executed separately.

14. MARGIN OR DEPOSIT

You agree and acknowledge to us that:

1. We may advise you of the need to provide an initial or variation deposit or margin by way of the payment of money, or if we so agree, the lodgement of collateral, in such amount as determined by us in our sole discretion, feel is necessary to protect ourselves from the personal obligation incurred by dealing in the financial products on your behalf. Prior to entering into a financial product transaction, we may require you to deposit cleared funds. The amount required and the time at which it is required will be at our absolute discretion. We are not obliged to permit any offset of any moneys or collateral so required by us.

2. We reserve the right, or whenever we deem appropriate, to raise or lower the margin or deposit requirements, which may apply to existing positions as well as to new positions. You will comply with and meet all such calls in accordance with this Client Agreement by depositing in cleared funds, the sum requested or lodging the collateral agreed within the time specified by us. We may determine the amount and time in our absolute discretion. Should we require additional funds from you to pay Variation Margin (or, margin call), you must pay the amount called by us immediately upon being given notice. In all respects, time shall be of the essence for all your payment obligations.
3. Should we make a margin call, you acknowledge and agree that we may refuse any of your request to enter into any further financial product transaction positions until we have confirmed the receipt of the margin call amount in the form of cleared funds.
4. Any exercise by us of any power or right under this clause, including, without limitation, the calling of margin, shall be binding on you.
5. Where you trade via the trading platform, margin calls will be notified via email/trading platform, and you are required to log in to the system on a daily basis if you have open positions to ensure you receive notification of any such margin calls. It is your sole responsibility to monitor and manage your open positions and exposures and ensure that margin calls are met as required.
6. Where you have not checked the trading platform for margin call notifications, and so have not met them in a timely manner, all margined positions will be closed out by us, without further reference to you.
7. We may, in our discretion, request you to make all margin and deposit payments with respect to any exchange traded or OTC financial product transactions directly to a broker affiliated with us. We agree that any payments made by you to such affiliate of ours pursuant to such a request will satisfy your obligation to make payments to us.
8. Liability for a deposit or margin arises at the time it is executed irrespective of the time at which any call is made, and such liability is not limited to the amount, if any, deposited with us.
9. You are responsible to pay any deficit owing to us after closure, and if you default or refuse such payment, we may apply the proceeds of any assets held by us against that deficit.
10. A margin call will not be considered to have been met unless and until cleared funds have been received by us in the nominated account (generally around 10AM on the following business day).
11. Should you fail to meet a margin call, we may without prejudice to any other rights or powers under this Client Agreement, and in our absolute discretion, close out, without notice, any or all of your exchange traded or OTC financial product contracts or refuse any of your request to enter into any further contracts.
12. No credit shall be extended directly or indirectly to you by us, unless otherwise agreed in writing.
13. Subject to you meeting all margin call obligations, we may permit you to withdraw from your account any excess net free equity.
14. Margin deposited by you will not fall due for repayment until your obligations under this Client Agreement and under, or in respect of, any other account between you and us are satisfied in full. Until this time, margin will not constitute a debt due from us to you nor will you have any right to receive payment of these funds.

15. MARGIN FX OR CFD TRANSACTION

1. Payments for Difference

You agree and acknowledge to us that:

- a. following business close on each business day during the term of an open Margin FX or CFD transaction, we will determine at business close the contract value of the contract;
- b. if the contract value determined is higher than the contract value determined in respect of the business close on the previous business day, then the short party must pay to the long party the difference;
- c. if the contract value determined is lower than the contract value determined in respect of the business close on the previous business day, then the long party must pay to the short party the difference;
- d. the contract value at business close on the business day on which the position is entered into is determined using the underlying security price;
- e. the contract value determined will ordinarily be the closing price of the underlying security quoted by the relevant exchange – where we determine that the contract value of a Margin FX or CFD position at business close cannot be determined on that basis for any reason, the contract value will be the value determined by us in our sole discretion; and
- f. without limiting sub-clause (e), if at any time trading on a relevant exchange is suspended or halted in any underlying security, we will, in determining the contract value, at its discretion have regard to the last traded price before the time of suspension or halt.

2. Dividends

You agree and acknowledge to us that:

- a. if you are a long party, your account will be credited with an amount equal to any gross un-franked amount of any dividend or distribution payable to the holder of the underlying security (after any applicable withholding tax, other local taxes or other charges as determined by us) multiplied by the contract quantity on the first business day immediately preceding the ex-dividend date; and
- b. if you are a short party, your account will be debited with an amount equal to any gross un-franked amount of any dividend or distribution payable to the holder of the underlying security (plus, an amount representing any applicable withholding tax, other local taxes or other charges as determined by us) multiplied by the contract quantity on the first business day following the ex-dividend date.

3. Closing a Position

You agree and acknowledge to us that:

- a. at any time, you may give us, by telephone or otherwise, notice of your intention to close any position (whether in whole or part) by specifying the underlying security and the proportion of the position that you wish to close;
- b. upon receipt of a closing notice, we shall use reasonable endeavours to provide a quote for the closing price and notify you of that quote (by telephone or otherwise) – it is your obligation to notify us as soon as possible (by telephone or otherwise) as to whether you are willing to accept the closing price – should you accept the closing price of the position, or relevant portion of the position, will be closed on the closing date;
- c. at the close of business on the closing date, should there be a difference between the closing value and the contract value of the open position (or portion of it), it must be accounted for in the following way:
 - i. should the closing value be greater than the contract value, the short party must pay to the long party the difference; and
 - ii. should the closing value be less than the contract value, the long party must pay to the short party the difference;
- d. if a company, whose security represents all or part of the subject matter of a Margin FX or CFD position becomes externally administered within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001, the Margin FX or CFD position is taken to have been closed at the time that such administration commences – the closing price shall be determined by us who may have regard to any factors we consider

- appropriate including, for example, the last traded price of the underlying security;
- e. without limiting our discretion, if any of the underlying securities cease to be quoted on a relevant exchange, or are suspended from quotation, or subject to a trading halt for 5 or more consecutive business days, we may, in our absolute discretion, elect to terminate the relevant Margin FX contract or CFD by providing written notice to you;
 - f. if at any time a take-over offer is made in respect of an underlying security, then at any time prior to the closing date of such offer, we may close the Margin FX or CFD position – references to 'offer', 'take-over' and 'closing date' in this Client Agreement have the meanings given to them in the Corporations Act 2001;
 - g. it may not be possible to close out a position if there is a suspension of trading or a trading halt in respect of the underlying security – in such a circumstance, we may decide, in our absolute discretion, not to close a position;
 - h. we may close a position if the aggregate amount of margin represented by payments for difference payable by you in relation to a position exceeds 50% of the initial margin in respect of that position;
 - i. as at business close on the day that a position is closed out, we will calculate your remaining payment rights and obligations and we based on the difference between the closing value and the contract value at the time it was entered into and taking into account any margin which has already been debited from or credited to your account in respect of that position;
 - j. where we determine that the closing value of a position cannot be calculated on the closing date for any reason, the closing value will be the value determined by us in our sole discretion;
 - k. without limiting the above, if at any time trading on a relevant exchange is suspended or halted in any underlying security, we will, in determining the closing value of a position, at our discretion have regard to the last traded price before the time of suspension or halt; and
 - l. all determinations and calculations made by us pursuant to this Client Agreement will be binding on you in the absence of manifest error.

4. Settlements of Position

You agree and acknowledge to us that:

- a. payments to be made to you with respect to any position will be made in accordance with this clause;
- b. when a payment for difference is made, or a position is closed out in accordance with this Client Agreement:
 - i. we will credit to your account any amount payable by us to you; or
 - ii. you must (subject to sub-clause (c)) pay to us any amount payable by you to us in such currency as we may require in cleared funds within 24 hours of being advised of the amount so payable;
- c. if there is then sufficient excess variation margin any amount owing by you under this clause may be settled in whole or in part by debiting your account;
- d. we reserve the right to offset any money owed to you under this Client Agreement or any other agreement against any money owed by you under this Client Agreement or any other agreement;
- e. if you have requested payment of any money owed to you under this clause, we will deduct that money from your account and pay it to you by cheque or in such other manner as may be agreed between us and you – if you have not requested payment of any money so owed to you it will be retained in your account.

5. Adjustments

You agree and acknowledge to us that:

- a. if any underlying security becomes subject to possible adjustment as the result of any of the events set out in this clause, we shall determine the appropriate adjustment, if any, to be made to the contract value of that underlying security and/or the related contract quantity to place the parties in substantially the same economic position they would have been in had the event not occurred – the adjustment will take effect as at the time determined by us, and will be conclusive and binding on you in the absence of manifest error;
- b. the events to which paragraph (a) of this clause refers are the declaration by the issuer of the underlying security of the terms of any of the following:
 - i. a subdivision, consolidation or reclassification of shares, or a free distribution of shares to existing holders by way of bonus, capitalisation or similar issue;
 - ii. a distribution to existing holders of the underlying shares of additional shares, other share capital or securities granting the right to payment of dividends and/or proceeds of liquidation of the issuer equally proportionately with such payments to holders of the underlying shares, or securities, rights or warrants granting the right to a distribution of shares or to purchase, subscribe, or receive shares, in any case for payment (in money cash or money's worth) at less than the prevailing market price per share as determined by us;
 - iii. any event in respect of the shares analogous to any of the foregoing events or otherwise having a dilutive or concentrative effect on the market value of the shares; and
 - iv. any other event in respect of which we (in our absolute discretion) decide an adjustment is appropriate;
- c. if at any time a take-over offer is made in respect of an underlying security, then at any time prior to the closing date of such offer, we may give you notice of our intention to close the position – if that happens, you are taken to have given a closing notice, with the closing price being the price notified to you by us;
- d. without limiting the above, if at any time an event occurs and we determine (in our absolute discretion) that it is not reasonably practicable to make an adjustment under this clause, we may at any time after we become aware of the event, give you notice of our intention to close the position – if that happens, you are taken to have given a closing notice, with the closing price being the price notified to you by us.

6. Interest Charges

- a. Interest payments owing in respect of borrowings by the long party under a position or in respect of borrowings by us from the short party under a position shall accrue and be payable on a daily basis at our prevailing rates of interest (determined at our sole discretion from time to time), and shall be settled by us on each day by debiting or crediting your account with the daily interest rate differential between the amount of interest payable by you and the amount of interest payable by us to you. In the event that there is insufficient excess variation margin in your account, you acknowledge that any amount due under this clause is a debt due and owing by you to us.
- b. In debiting or crediting interest to your account, we may charge or pay you interest at a rate different to the interest rate which we are charged or paid on equivalent borrowings of foreign currency (or otherwise) by a bank or counterparty and may retain the difference.
- c. The rates of interest applicable under this clause may be as agreed between you and we from time to time and, in the absence of such agreement, shall be a rate determined by us in our absolute discretion.

 - a. all legal costs incurred by you associated with entering into this Client Agreement and all taxes and expenses incurred by you in connection with this Client Agreement;

 - f. interest, in respect of any unpaid amount due under this Client Agreement, at a rate of three (3) per cent per annum above LIBOR (at a minimum of 10% per annum) – such interest shall accrue and be calculated daily from the date payment was due until the date you pay in full and shall be compounded monthly; and
 - g. interest is calculated on the basis of net free equity on each account, unless specifically agreed otherwise – interest will be charged on the full negative net free equity on any account, regardless of whether you hold other accounts which have positive net free equity (please note that this means that if you hold multiple accounts, you may incur interest charges although the aggregate net free equity position of all of your accounts may be positive).
2. You authorise us to transfer, credit, apply, or pay monies that may be received by us or held by us on your behalf in payment of any amounts which may be outstanding by you to us or our agent in a transaction effected on your behalf.
 3. Where amounts are payable by one party to the other, netting principles shall apply to enable the party owing the larger amount to pay the excess only to the other party. Amounts may be converted into the same currency in accordance with this Client Agreement.
 4. We may in our absolute discretion reduce or waive the minimum deposit amount, the minimum account balance or interest rates on debit balances, fees (including royalties or fees for third party services) or transaction charges, for individual clients or for classes of clients, for any length of time, with or without conditions, without notice.

Any commissions payable by you with respect to dealings conducted on your behalf by your financial adviser will be deducted from your account by us for remittance to your financial adviser pursuant to details provided in writing by you to us. Adviser commissions are payable immediately upon the entering into and the closing of a financial product transaction.
 8. Should you be given access through the electronic platform or otherwise to prices or information provided by any exchange to which a royalty or other fee must be paid for the use of such prices or information, we shall have the right to affect the payment of any such royalty or other fee by debiting your account on a monthly basis.
 9. Payments by you to us in accordance with this Client Agreement must be made without any offset, counter claim or condition and without any deduction or withholding for any tax or any other reason unless the deduction or withholding is required by applicable law. Should you be required to make any form of deduction in respect of tax from any payment to be made or if we are required to pay any tax in respect of any payment made in relation to this Client Agreement at your request, you agree to keep us indemnified against that tax and agree to pay to us any additional amounts required to ensure we receive the full net amount that is equal to the amount we would have received had a deduction, withholding or payment of tax not been made.
 10. You agree that we may at any time share transaction fees and charges with any other persons without being required to disclose the sharing of such fees and charges to you, unless such disclosure is required by law.
